FOOTBALL LEAGUE AGM 351

ATTENDANCES 1984-85 353

European Cup Final – Heysel Stadium, Brussels, May 29, 1985
JUVENTUS 1, LIVERPOOL 0, DEAD 38

UEFA DISCIPLINARY INQUIRY: "The committee established that before the match Liverpool supporters had shown indisciplined, aggressive and extremely violent conduct towards spectators who, in the great majority, were of Italian origin. They also showed the same conduct towards the security forces. About one hour before the official kick-off, they launched repeated attacks against the spectators concerned, causing ultimately the death of 38 people and injury to 300-400, some remaining in a critical state."

MAY 31: FA impose 12-month ban on English clubs playing in European competitions (Everton, Man. United, Liverpool, Tottenham, Southampton and Norwich the affected clubs).

JUNE 2: UEFA ban English clubs from competing in Europe for "an indeterminate period of time." Executive Committee president Jacques Georges (France) says: "The 38 people killed in the disaster went to Brussels to celebrate the 'match of the century'. They became victims of a barbaric action that we all condemn."

JUNE 6: FIFA ban English professional clubs from playing in any other country in the world (except in domestic competitions against Welsh clubs).

JUNE 20 (UEFA decision): Liverpool barred from all European club competitions for the first three seasons for which they qualify after the lifting of the indefinite ban on other English clubs; Juventus ordered to play their next two home European ties behind closed doors; Belgium not allowed to stage any Final in the European Cup or the Cup-Winners' Cup for ten years.

JUNE 28: High Court judge rules against challenge by Everton, Man. United, Southampton, Norwich and Professional Footballers' Association to European ban imposed by FA and UEFA.

JULY 12: FIFA lift world ban imposed (June 6) on English clubs.

ON THE EDGE OF A PRECIPICE . . .

Three months after the worst double disaster in the game's history – 56 killed in the Bradford City inferno, 38 lives lost in the Brussels horror – League football kicks off its 87th season with massive problems.

Between seasons, the difficulties have spoken for themselves. With the top clubs barred from European competition, we may not yet appreciate in full the consequences to soccer in this country of that terrible night in Brussels.

It has long been trite to say that the game is at the crossroads. It isn't any more. English football is now on the edge of a precipice, and if it is to step back, the new season must begin to solve its worst problem, hooliganism.

The world's greatest game began within these shores, and in the battle that lies ahead England's sporting heritage is at stake. Fortunately, there are some encouraging signs.

THE WAY AHEAD

Caring clubs are pointing the game in the right direction in the way they are run on "family" lines, establishing close links with supporters and requiring their players to devote time and effort to community relations.

No season has kicked off with so many vital questions hanging over it and, facing all the problems arising from Bradford and Brussels, English football needs firm and resolute leadership as never before.

If the enforced absence of European football can be turned to advantage by improving the product on the field and increasing the game's entertainment value, that will be another substantial plus.

Albert Sewell

TEN-POINT PLAN

Football League club chairmen, meeting in London on July 3, approved this ten-point plan (to be presented to Government-appointed working party) to combat hooliganism:–

- Individual club membership schemes for supporters (national identity-card plan rejected as unworkable).
- Alcohol ban at grounds to exclude Executive boxes and club restaurants.
- More all-ticket matches.
- More morning kick-offs.
- Support for Government White Paper on public order.
- Clubs to take tougher action on hooligans convicted of football-related offences.
- More paid police on duty in grounds, without the cost falling on clubs.
- More closed-circuit television surveillance.
- Heavier sentences on football hooligans by magistrates.
- More Government aid for ground improvements (via suggested 2½% cut in Pools betting tax).

SALUTE TO EVERTON

By Reg Drury

(No. 1 Football Writer, News of the World)

Can Everton repeat their success of 1984-85 in the coming season, or did they just borrow the Soccer glory – and the League Championship – from neighbours Liverpool for one year?

Everton did far more than win the First Division title and the European Cup-winners' Cup last season and narrowly fail at Wembley to complete a treble as fantastic as it would have been unique.

They re-discovered their pride after being totally overshadowed by Liverpool for 15 years. Everton played football with a style which not only restored the faith of their own fans but gained national acclaim from the neutrals.

Manager Howard Kendall, whose Goodison Park lifeline was hanging by a thread mid-way through the previous campaign, suddenly cracked it by finding the right line-up and instilling his players with belief in their own ability.

Kendall's added bonus was the "Manager of the Year" award – and you couldn't find anyone who disputed or begrudged him the prize. His goalkeeper Neville Southall was voted "Footballer of the Year" by the Soccer writers and mid-field general Peter Reid was the choice as "Player of the Year" by his fellow professionals.

International honours piled up thick and fast. Reid, Gary Stevens, Trevor Steven and Paul Bracewell all forced their way into the England squad during the season. Southall, skipper Kevin Ratcliffe and new boy Pat Van den Hauwe played for Wales; Graeme Sharp and Andy Gray for Scotland; Kevin Sheedy for the Republic of Ireland.

It almost seemed an injustice that centre-half Derek Mountfield, who proved as effective at scoring goals as stopping rival centre-forwards getting them, should end up as odd man out with only England Under-21 recognition.

Everton's achievements deserved every bouquet and justified the pleasure of their players who confounded those of us who tended to under-estimate them after their two opening League games last season resulted in defeat.

But can they keep it up? I certainly wouldn't bet against it.

FIFA WORLD CUP 1986

Mexico will present the Finals of the thirteenth World Cup in 1986, having taken over from Colombia, who withdrew for economic reasons as the scheduled hosts. Mexico thus become the first country to stage two Final series (the first in 1970).

As in Spain in 1982, 24 countries will compete, comprising Mexico as hosts, Italy as reigning World Champions and 22 from the qualifying round. From an original entry of 123 countries, the qualifying draw was made in Zurich on December 7, 1983. All matches to be completed by November 30, 1985. Draw for the Finals to be made in Mexico City on Sunday, December 15, 1985.

Mexico 1986: For the opening round of the Final series, the 24 qualifiers will be divided into six groups of four, and 16 countries will advance to the second phase. They will be the top two in each group and the four third-placed teams with most points. From there on, the competition will be on a knock-out basis.

A total of 52 matches will be played in 30 days, commencing May 31 and culminating with the Final at the Aztec Stadium in Mexico City on June 29.

MOST INTERNATIONALS

Pat Jennings, the 40-year-old Northern Ireland goalkeeper, holds the record for International appearances by a British player – 110. He has been Ireland's No. 1 over 22 seasons, beginning with their 3-2 win against Wales at Swansea on April 15, 1964.

Jennings became only the fourth British footballer to appear in 100 Internationals when he played against Austria in Belfast on September 21, 1983.

He passed Bobby Moore's England record of 108 caps when he played against Spain in Majorca on March 27, 1985, and five appearances for Northern Ireland in season 1984-85 took his total to 110.

Jennings is the only British player whose appearances in first-class matches (club and representative) exceed 1,000.

Three players have completed a century of appearances in full International matches for England. Billy Wright of Wolves, was the first, retiring in 1959 with a total of 105 caps.

Bobby Charlton, of Manchester United beat Wright's record in the World Cup match against West Germany in Leon, Mexico, in June 1970 and Bobby Moore, of West Ham, overtook Charlton's 106 caps against Italy in Turin, in June 1973. Moore finished with the still-existing record of 108 games for England.

CUP SENSATIONS

Four months before the 1966 World Cup finals in England the World Cup itself, the gold Jules Rimet Trophy, insured for £30,000, was stolen while on exhibition in London. One week later, March 27, the Cup, undamaged and wrapped in a copy of the News of the World, was found in the front garden of his home at Norwood, London, by a man and his dog. The finder obtained rewards exceeding £5,000; the dog, Pickles became famous overnight.

To commemorate their third triumph in 1970, Brazil were given the Jules Rimet trophy to keep permanently, and it was replaced for competition by the FIFA World Cup. But, on December 19, 1983 the original cup vanished from the Brazilian Confederation offices. Two men were arrested, but the Jules Rimet cup was never seen again; it had been melted down. A replica, valued at £25,000 and made in West Germany, was presented to Brazil at a ceremony in Frankfurt in March 1984.

The original F.A. Cup was stolen from a shop window in Birmingham, 1895, while Aston Villa were the holders. A new trophy was provided and this was withdrawn and presented to Lord Kinnaird, the president of the F.A. February 6, 1911, in appreciation of his services to the game.

The Scottish F.A. withheld their Cup and medals in 1908-9 after Rangers and Celtic had played two drawn games at Hampden Park. Spectators rioted.

CHIEF F.A. CUP WINNERS

Seven Times: Aston Villa, Tottenham Hotspur (Spurs have never been beaten in seven FA Cup Finals).

Six Times: Newcastle United, Blackburn Rovers, Manchester United.

Five Times: The Wanderers, West Bromwich Albion, Arsenal.

Three Times in Succession: The Wanderers (1876-7-8) and Blackburn Rovers (1884-5-6).

Trophy Handed Back: The F.A. Cup became the Wanderers' absolute property in 1878, but they handed it back to the Association on condition that it was not to be won outright by any club. Hence Blackburn Rovers after a third successive win in 1886, were presented with a commemorative shield.

In Successive Years of Professional Play: Blackburn Rovers (in 1890 and 1891), Newcastle United (in 1951 and 1952), Tottenham Hotspur (in 1961 and 1962) and Tottenham again (in 1981 and 1982) have won the Cup in successive years.

Record Final-tie score: Bury 6, Derby County 0 (1903)

Record F.A. Cup Entry ..... 674 in 1921

SENDINGS-OFF: ALL-TIME RECORD

Sendings off reached a record 242 in domestic football in season 1982-83. The total comprised 211 in the Football League, 19 in the F.A. Cup and 12 in the Milk Cup.

Previous record was 157 in season 1981-82 (132 League, 20 League Cup, 5 F.A. Cup).

November 20, 1982 was the worst day for dismissals in football history with 15 players sent off (3 League, 12 in the F.A. Cup first round). That was also the blackest day for disciplinary action in the F.A. Cup (previous worst – eight on January 9, 1915).

Most players ordered off in the Football League on one day: 9, on three occasions in season 1982-83 (Sept. 25, Oct. 16 and Oct.23) and on April 28, 1984.

Domestic sendings-off in season 1983-84 totalled 173 (150 Canon Legue, 13 F.A. Cup, 10 Milk Cup).

In 1984-85 the total was 183 (163 Canon League, 8 F.A. Cup, 12 Milk Cup).

FOUR DIVISIONS

In May, 1957, the Football League decided to re-group the two sections of the Third Division into Third and Fourth Divisions in season 1958-9.

OLDEST LEAGUE CLUBS

The oldest Football League clubs are: Notts County, 1862; Nottingham Forest 1865; and Sheffield Wednesday, 1866. The first Stoke club was formed in 1863.

FAMOUS UPS & DOWNS

Sunderland: Relegated in 1958 after maintaining First Division status since their election to the Football League in 1890.

Aston Villa: Relegated with Preston North End, to the Third Division in 1970.

Arsenal Up: When the League was extended in 1919, Woolwich Arsenal (sixth in Division Two in 1914-15, last season before the war) were elected to Division One. Arsenal have been in Div. I ever since.

Spurs Down: At the same meeting Chelsea (due for relegation) retained their place in Division One but the bottom club (Tottenham Hotspur) had to go down to Division Two.

Preston and Burnley Down: Preston North End, the first League Champions in season 1888-9, dropped into the Fourth Division in 1985. So did Burnley, also among the League's original members in 1888.

LEAGUE HAT-TRICKS

Huddersfield Town created a record in 1925-6 by winning the League Championship for the third year in succession.

Arsenal equalled this League hat-trick in 1933-4-5. Their League positions, from 1930-1 onwards, had been 1, 2, 1, 1, 1.

Liverpool became the third club to win three successive League Championships (1982-3-4). In the same seasons, they won the League/Milk Cup as well, and in 1984 they also won the European Cup.

CHAMPIONS IN SUCCESSIVE SEASONS

Preston North End (1888-9, 1889-90).
Sunderland (1891-2, 1892-3).
Aston Villa (1895-6, 1896-7, 1898-9, 1899-1900).

Wolverhampton Wanderers (1957-8, 1958-9).

Tottenham Hotspur won the Second Division Championship in 1949-50 and the First Division Championship 1950-1, a double also achieved by Ipswich Town in 1960-1 and 1961-2.

Oxford United became the first club to win the Third and Second Division Championships in successive years (1984, 1985).

MOST POINTS IN A SEASON

(The following records applied before the introduction of three points for a win in the Football League in 1981-82).

Lincoln City set a Football League record in season 1975-6 with 74 points from 46 games, (including 32 victories) in Division 4.

First Division: Liverpool (1978-9), 68 points from 42 matches.

Second Division: Tottenham Hotspur (1919-20), 70 points from 42 matches.

Third Division: Aston Villa (1971-72) 70 points from 46 matches.

Fewest Points: Doncaster Rovers, 8 points (of possible 68)

in Second Division, 1904-5. Stirling Albion 6 points (of possible 60) in Scottish League Division A, 1954-5.

Since 3 Points for Win

First Division: Everton (1984-5) 90 points; Second Division: Luton (1981-2), Chelsea (1983-4), Sheff. Wed. (1983-4) 88 points; Third Division: Oxford United (1983-4) 95 points; Fourth Division: York City (1983-4) 101 points (record for any division).

MOST CHAMPIONSHIP WINS

Liverpool, by winning the First Division in 1976-77, established a new record of 10 Championship victories. By 1984, they increased the total to 15.

Home Runs: Sunderland were undefeated at home in Football League (Div. I) in seasons 1891-2, 2-3, 4-5 and 5-6, losing only one home match in 1893-4. Brentford won all 21 home games in 1929-30 in the Third Division (South). Others have won all home games in a smaller programme.

Record Home Run: Liverpool went 85 competitive first-team games unbeaten at home between losing 2-3 to Birmingham on January 21, 1978 and 1-2 to Leicester on January 31, 1981.

Third to First: Charlton Athletic, in 1936, became the first club to advance from the Third to First Division in successive seasons. Queen's Park Rangers were the second club to achieve the feat in 1968, and Oxford United did it in 1984 and 1985 as Champions of each division.

Fourth to First: Northampton Town, in 1965 became the first club to rise from the Fourth to the First Division. Swansea City climbed from the Fourth Division to the First (three promotions in four seasons), 1977-8 to 1980-1. Watford did so in five seasons, 1977-8 to 1981-2.

FAMOUS CLUB FEATS

Tottenham Hotspur, in 1960-1, not only carried off the First Division Championship and the F.A. Cup for the first time this century but set up other records by opening with 11 successive wins, registering most First Division wins (31), most away wins in the League's history (16), and equalling Arsenal's First Division record of 66 points. They already held the Second Division record of 70 points (1919-20).

Arsenal repeated Tottenham's double feat by winning the F.A. Cup and the Football League Championship in 1970-1.

Preston North End, in season 1888-9, won the first League Championship without losing a match and the F.A. Cup without having a goal scored against them throughout the competition.

Bury, in 1903, also won the F.A. Cup without conceding a goal.

Liverpool won the League Championship in 1964, the F.A. Cup in 1965 and the Championship again in 1966. In 1978 they became the first British club to win the European Cup in successive seasons.

Liverpool created two new First Division records in the 1978-9 season. They won the League Championship with a record 68 points and conceded only 16 League goals in a 42 match programme.

Liverpool won the League Championship six times in eight seasons (1976-83) under Bob Paisley's management. During his nine years in charge at Anfield – he succeeded Bill Shankly in July 1974 – they won a total of 20 major prizes: 6 League titles, 3 European Cups, 3 League (Milk) Cups, 1 UEFA Cup, 1 European Super Cup and 6 F.A. Charity Shields (1 shared).

Triple Bids: Liverpool made history as the first Football League club to win three major competitions in one season when, in 1983-4 (their first under manager Joe Fagan) they were League Champions, Milk Cup winners and European Cup winners.

RECORD LEAGUE RUN

Nottingham Forest hold the record unbeaten sequence in the Football League – 42 matches spanning season 1977-8 – 1978-9. The run ended on December 9, 1978 when Forest lost 0-2 at Liverpool. Their sequence comprised 21 wins and 21 draws.

Best Debuts: Ipswich Town won the First Division at their first attempt in 1961-2. Peterborough United in their first season the Football League (1960-1) not only won the Fourth Division but set up a new scoring record for the League of 134 goals. Hereford United were promoted from the Fourth Division in their first League season. 1972-3.

LONGEST UNBEATEN CUP RUN

Liverpool established the longest unbeaten Cup sequence by a Football League club: 25 successive rounds in the League/Milk Cup between semi-final defeat by Nottingham Forest (1-2 agg.) in 1980 and defeat at Tottenham (0-1) in the third round on October 31, 1984. During this period Liverpool won the tournament in four successive seasons, a feat no other Football League club has achieved in any competition.

WORST LEAGUE SEQUENCE

Cambridge United experienced the longest run without a win in Football League history in season 1983-84: 31 matches (21 lost, 10 drawn) between October 8 and April 23. They finished bottom of the Second Division.

Previous worst no-win League sequence was 30 by Crewe Alexandra (Div. 3 North) in season 1956-57.

ORIGINAL TWELVE

The original 12 members of the Football League (formed in 1888) were: Accrington, Aston Villa, Blackburn Rovers, Bolton Wanderers, Burnley, Derby County, Everton, Notts County, Preston North End, Stoke, West Bromwich Albion and Wolverhampton Wanderers.

CELTIC'S GRAND SLAM

Celtic's record in the 1966-7 season was the most successful in British club history. They won the Scottish League, the Scottish Cup, the Scottish League Cup, the Glasgow Cup and became the first British club to win the European Cup.

Celtic have twice achieved the Scottish treble (League Championship, League Cup and F.A. Cup), in 1966-7 and 1968-9.

Celtic have won the Scottish Cup most times (27).

RANGERS' MANY RECORDS

Rangers have achieved a number of record-breaking feats, including:-

League Champions: 37 times (once joint holders).

Winning every match in Scottish League (1898-9 season).

Major hat-trick: Rangers have completed the domestic treble (League Championship, League Cup and Scottish F.A. Cup) a record four times (1948-9, 1963-4, 1975-6, 1977-8).

ABERDEEN EQUAL SCOTTISH CUP RECORD

Aberdeen's feat of winning the Scottish F.A. Cup in 1982-3-4 made them only the third club to achieve that particular hat-trick.

Queen's Park did it twice (1874-75-76 and 1880-81-82), and Rangers have won the Scottish Cup three years in succession on three occasions: 1934-35-36, 1948-49-50 and 1962-63-64.

CELTIC'S RECORD 62

Celtic hold the Scottish League record run of success with 62 matches undefeated, from November 13, 1915 to April 21, 1917, when Kilmarnock won 2-0 at Parkhead.

Greenock Morton in 1963-4 were undefeated in home League matches, obtained a record 67 points out of 72 and scored 135 goals, clinching promotion as early as February 29.

Queens Park (Glasgow) did not have a goal scored against them during the first seven years of their existence.

DAYS OF TRAGEDY

In the Rangers v. Celtic Scottish League match in September, 1931, John Thomson, the Celtic and Scottish International goalkeeper, sustained a fractured skull and died the same evening.

John White (27), Tottenham Hotspur's Scottish International forward, was killed by lightning on a London golf course in July, 1964.

Two players were killed by lightning during the Army Cup Final replay at Aldershot in April, 1948.

Tommy Allden (23), Highgate United centre-half was struck by lightning during Highgate's Amateur Cup quarter-final with Enfield Town on February 25, 1967. He died in hospital the following day. Four other players were also struck but recovered.

Derek Dooley, Sheffield Wednesday centre-forward and top scorer in 1951-52 in the Football League with 46 goals in 30 matches, broke a leg in the League match at Preston on February 14, 1953, and complications setting in, had to lose the limb by amputation.

LONGEST SEASONS

The latest that League Football has been played in a season was June 7, 1947. The season was extended because of mass postponements caused by bad weather in mid-winter.

The latest the F.A. Cup competition has ever been completed was in season 1981-82, when Tottenham beat Q.P.R. 1-0 in a Final replay at Wembley on May 27.

WEMBLEY'S RECEIPTS RECORDS

Wembley Stadium underwent considerable alteration during 1962-3 period in preparation for the World Cup in 1966. Higher admission fees at the 1963 F.A. Cup Final resulted in 100,000 spectators paying a record £89,000.

In 1968 this rose to a new peak of £110,000, for the F.A. Cup Final between W.B.A. and Everton and the record was broken later in the same month when receipts reached £120,000 for the European Cup Final between Manchester United and Benfica.

Receipts figures rose dramatically and for the 1976 F.A. Cup Final between Southampton and Manchester United 100,000 people paid £420,000.

The £500,000 mark was reached for the 1978 Cup Final between Ipswich and Arsenal.

A new record for international matches at Wembley was established on November 18th, 1981, in a World Cup qualifying game between England and Hungary when receipts reached £671,000.

The 1982 F.A. Cup Final (Tottenham 1, QPR 1) produced a new British receipts record of £886,000, and receipts for the replay were £605,000.

The Everton-Watford Final in 1984 lifted the receipts record to £919,000, and the 1985 F.A. Cup Final between Manchester United and Everton produced Britain's first £1m gate (£1,100,000).

Two months earlier, there were new record receipts for the Milk Cup Final (Norwich v. Sunderland) of £860,935.

DOUBLE SCOTTISH FINAL

Rangers v. Celtic drew 129,643 and 120,273 people to the Scottish Cup Final and replay at Hampden Park, Glasgow, in 1963, but the aggregate was not a record. The 1963 total of receipts was £50,500.

WEMBLEY INVASION DAY

Memorable scenes were witnessed at the first F.A. Cup Final at Wembley, April 28, 1923, between Bolton Wanderers and West Ham United. An accurate return of the attendance could not be made owing to the crowd breaking in, but there were probably 150,000 spectators present. The start of the match was delayed for 40 minutes owing to the crowd invading the playing pitch. Official attendance was 126,047.

Gate receipts totalled £27,776. The two clubs and the Football Association each received £6,365 and the F.A. refunded £2,797 to ticket-holders who were unable to get to their seats.

At subsequent Finals, admission has been by ticket only.

SIR STANLEY MATTHEWS

"For services to Association Football", Stanley Matthews (Stoke City, Blackpool and England), already a C.B.E., became the first professional footballer to receive a knighthood. This was bestowed in 1965, his last season.

Before he retired and five days after his 50th birthday, he played for Stoke to set a record as the oldest ever First Division footballer (v. Fulham, February 6, 1965).

Over a brilliant span of 33 years, he played in 886 matches, including 54 full internationals, 701 League games (including 3 at start of season 1939-40 which was abandoned on outbreak of war) and 86 F.A. Cup-ties, and scored 95 goals.

Sir Stanley celebrated his 70th birthday last season (February 1, 1985).

CHANGES IN LAW

The most important change in the Laws of the Game was the amendment to the offside law at the start of season 1925-26. At a meeting of the International Board in Paris on June 13, 1925, it was decided (on the proposal of the Scottish F.A.) that, in brief, a player shall not be offside if two (previously three) opponents are nearer their own goal-line at the time the ball is played to him in his opponents' half.

Goalkeeper's use of hands restricted to penalty area 1912

LONGEST LEAGUE SEQUENCE

Harold Bell, of Tranmere Rovers, was never absent for nine seasons, (1946-55), including the League record of 401 consecutive matches.

EVER-PRESENT DEFENCE

The entire defence of Huddersfield Town played in all 42 Second Division matches in season 1952-3, namely, Bill Wheeler (goal), Ron Staniforth and Laurie Kelly (full-backs), Bill McGarry, Don McEvoy and Len Quested (half-backs). In addition, Vic Metcalfe played in all 42 League matches at outside-left.

DAYS OF TRAGEDY

The two worst disasters in one season in British soccer history occurred at the end of 1984-85. On May 11, the last Saturday of the League season, 56 people were burned to death – and more than 200 taken to hospital – when fire destroyed the main stand at the Bradford City-Lincoln City match at Valley Parade.

The wooden, 77-year-old stand was full for City's last fixture, before which, amid scenes of celebration, the club had been presented with the Third Division Championship trophy. The fire broke out just before half-time and, within five minutes, the entire stand was blazing.

Eighteen days later, on May 29, at the European Cup Final between Liverpool and Juventus at the Heysel Stadium, Brussels, 38 spectators (30 of them Italian) were crushed or trampled to death and 437 injured. The disaster occurred an hour before the scheduled kick-off when Liverpool supporters charged a Juventus section of the crowd at one end of the stadium and, under pressure, a containing wall collapsed.

On May 26, 1985 ten people were trampled to death and 29 seriously injured in a crowd panic on the way into the Olympic Stadium, Mexico City for the Mexican Cup Final. The match, between local clubs National University and America, resulted 0-0.

Some 300 people were killed and at least 500 injured when the crowd rioted over a disallowed goal at the National Stadium in Lima, Peru, May 24, 1964. The teams, from Argentina and Peru, were competing to play in the Olympic Games in Tokyo.

The worst disaster in the history of British football occurred at Glasgow Rangers' ground at Ibrox Park, January 2, 1971.

Sixty-six people were trampled to death as they tumbled down a stairway at the ground after the Rangers v. Celtic New Year's match.

The tragedy eclipsed even the Bolton disaster when 33 people were killed and about 500 injured when a wall and crowd barriers collapsed at the Bolton v. Stoke F.A. Cup sixth round tie on March 9, 1946.

There was another crowd disaster at Ibrox on April 5, 1902 when part of the terracing collapsed during the Scotland v. England international. Twenty-five people were killed. The match, held up for 20 minutes, ended 1-1, but was never counted as an official International.

Eight leading players and three officials of Manchester United and eight newspaper representatives were among those who perished in the air crash at Munich on February 6, 1958, during take-off following a European Cup-tie in Belgrade. The players were Roger Byrne, Geoffrey Bent, Eddie Colman, Duncan Edwards, Mark Jones, David Pegg, Tommy Taylor and Liam Whelan, and the officials were Walter Crickmer (secretary), Tom Curry (trainer) and Herbert Whalley (coach). The newspaper representatives were Alf Clarke, Don Davies, George Follows, Tom Jackson, Archie Ledbrooke, Henry Rose, Eric Thompson and Frank Swift (former England goalkeeper of Manchester City).

THREE UP – THREE DOWN

The Football League Annual General Meeting of June 1973 agreed to adopt the promotion and relegation system of three up and three down.

The new system came into force in the 1973-4 season and applied only to the first three divisions; four were still relegated from the Third and four promoted from the Fourth.

It was the first change in the promotion and relegation system for the top two divisions in 81 years.

END OF WAGE LIMIT

Freedom from the maximum wage system – in force since the formation of the Football League in 1888 – was secured by the Professional Footballers' Association in 1961. About this time Italian clubs renewed overtures for transfer of British stars (first departure having been John Charles, Welsh International of Leeds United, 1957). Fulham's Johnny Haynes became the first British player to earn a wage of £100 a week.

SHIRT NUMBERING

Numbering players in Football League matches was made compulsory in 1939.

SUBSTITUTES

In 1965, the Football League, by 39 votes to 10, agreed that one substitute be allowed for an injured player at any time during a League match.

In 1957 a F.I.F.A. proposal to allow substitution of an injured goalkeeper in competitive football was defeated.

When L. Roose, the Welsh goalkeeper, retired hurt in the England match at Wrexham, March 16, 1908, D. Davies (Bolton Wanderers) was allowed to take his place as substitute. Thus Wales used 12 players. England won 7-1.

The first recorded use of a substitute was in 1889 (Wales v Scotland at Wrexham on April 15) when S. Gillam (Wales) was injured shortly after the kick-off and was replaced by Pugh (Rhostellyn).

CAPTAIN'S CUP DOUBLE

ENGLAND'S FINE DISCIPLINARY RECORD

In their 604 full Internationals, beginning in 1872 and up to the start of season 1985-86, England have had only three players sent off:-

June 1968 Alan Mullery v Yugoslavia (Florence, European Championship)
June 1973 Alan Ball v Poland (Chorzow, World Cup)
June 1977 Trevor Cherry v Argentina (Buenos Aires, friendly)

STURROCK'S RECORD

Paul Sturrock set an individual scoring record for the Scottish Premier Division with 5 goals in Dundee United's 7-0 win at home to Morton on November 17, 1984.

IPSWICH EQUAL CUP RECORD

Ipswich Town are the best modern "starters" in the F.A. Cup. They have been successful in the third round for the last 15 years, equalling a record set by Liverpool in 1930.

MISSED CUP FINAL PENALTIES

A penalty-kick has yet to be missed in the F.A. Cup Final at Wembley, but two players have failed to score from the spot in the other domestic Final.

Aston Villa's Ray Graydon had his penalty against Norwich City in the 1975 League Cup Final saved by goalkeeper Kevin Keelan, but Graydon followed up as the ball rebounded to him and scored the winning goal (1-0).

Clive Walker shot wide with Sunderland's penalty in the 1985 Milk Cup Final against Norwich, who won 1-0.

BIGGEST MODERN GROUND

Old Trafford, home of Manchester United, is now the largest ground in the Football League, with a capacity of 58,500.

United hold Britain's all-time record average home League attendance: 57,758 in season 1967-68.

WEMBLEY'S SUSPENDED CAPTAINS

Suspension has prevented a club captain playing in a Wembley Final in each of the last four seasons.

Three were in F.A. Cup Finals – Glenn Roeder (Q.P.R., 1982), Steve Foster (Brighton, 1983) and Wilf Rostron (Watford, 1984) – and Sunderland's Shaun Elliott was barred from the 1985 Milk Cup Final.

Roeder was banned from Q.P.R.'s 1982 Cup Final replay against Tottenham, and Foster was ruled out of the first match in Brighton's 1983 Final against Manchester United.

BRITAIN'S 25 TROPHIES IN EUROPE

Everton's success in the 1985 Cup-Winners' Cup took the number of triumphs by British clubs in European competitions to 25:-

TRANSFER TRAIL

by Albert Sewell

There have been sixteen British transfer deals of £1m or over, with two players – Trevor Francis and Clive Allen – each involved in two of them. But a decision taken at the Football League a.g.m. (June 11, 1982) halted the domestic movement of players at such fees, because the new transfer regulation required that 50 per cent be paid immediately and the balance within a year. That raised the question, in the changing economic climate, was any club any longer in a position to make a down payment of £500,000 to secure a player valued at £1m?

Trevor Francis was the first British player to be transferred for £1m (Birmingham to Nottingham Forest, February 1979). Bryan Robson became Britain's most expensive footballer at £1.5m when joining Manchester United from W.B.A. in October 1981. There has not been a £1m signing by a British club since then.

Manchester City, Manchester United and Nottingham Forest have each paid three £1m transfer fees; Arsenal and Norwich City have each sold two players for £1m. This is how the millions have been spent and the record fees have mounted since the first £1,000 transfer in 1905.

June 7 Football League refuses request by Oxford chairman Robert Maxwell at AGM for emergency debate on hooliganism. President Jack Dunnett says: "We will make our judgement after official reports are received on recent events – instant conclusions have never been my style."

June 10 Jim Smith moves to QPR after managing Oxford United to Third and Second Division Championships in successive seasons.

June 16 FIFA indicate they will modify their world ban on English clubs playing abroad. England beat USA 5-0 in Los Angeles in the final match of English soccer's most traumatic season.

QUOTE, UNQUOTE – SEASON 1984-85

LEN ASHURST (Sunderland manager, on eve of season): "Results matter, and we have an obligation to deliver the goods. If that means scratching a few shins and breaking a few noses, so be it. If some of my players don't get booked, I shall be asking a few questions."

IAN STEWART (Northern Ireland forward, turning down a £100-a-week pay rise offered by QPR in September): "I'm earning enough already. Money isn't everything. I still enjoyed myself on £9.95 a week when I was unemployed for a whole year."

CHRIS CATTLIN (Brighton manager, after 0-0 draw at home to Barnsley on Oct. 20): "This performance was so poor, I will not accept my wages this week. Our fans threw away their hard-earned cash by paying to see us perform like this."

RICHARD TAYLOR (Selkirk goalkeeper on the 20-0 defeat against Stirling Albion in Scottish Cup first round on Dec. 8): "After this, my wife won't even let me hold the baby."

GRAHAM TAYLOR (Watford manager, as striker Maurice Johnston returned to Scotland in £400,000 move to Celtic a year after joining Watford from Partick): "This has shown me the unsavoury side of the game. I have maintained certain standards which I am not prepared to see lowered."

DAVE CLARKE (East Fife manager) after inspecting a rock-hard pitch in the midst of the January freeze, pinned up a team-sheet that read: "Catchit, Hackett, Humpit, Thumpit, Bumpit, Crackett, Smackett, Smashit, Nickit, Kickit and Stickett." His team beat Partick 3-1. (From The Guardian).

JEFF POWELL (Daily Mail) reporting the riot-wrecked Chelsea-Sunderland Milk Cup semi-final second leg on March 4: "Walker broke down the left, crossed over the head of a helmeted policeman and applauded the header with which West killed off Chelsea."

KEN BATES (Chelsea chairman, after the same match): "There is scum at every club – it's symptomatic of the society we live in, but we have had enough. We are going to have to drive the scum out of the stands and back to the terraces, where they can be more easily controlled."

BRIAN CLOUGH, discussing Everton (April 22): "They are out on their own, and could dominate the scene for years. Where is the opposition to come from? Not Tottenham, with some of the defenders they have. Not Arsenal....Don't put Manchester United in the same class either – or the likes of my club, Forest. And Liverpool are on the kind of blink they haven't experienced for 15 years, running around like a chicken with its head chopped off and talking about buying anybody."

TOMMY DOCHERTY (on Wolves falling from First Division to Third in successive seasons): "At this rate, we'll be dropping off the coupons next."

GLENN HODDLE, having started three England matches in a row on the Mexico-USA tour: "After this, I don't feel any longer that I am constantly having to prove myself."

LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

Hat-tricks: Comparison

Liverpool's Championship hat-trick in 1982-83-84 was only the third in the 96-year history of League football and the first for 49 years, since Arsenal achieved the feat in 1933-34-35. Huddersfield Town were the first club to win three successive Championship titles in 1924-25-26.

In the days of those previous League hat-tricks, the only other competition played each season was the F.A. Cup. In contrast, leading clubs nowadays play in four tournaments each season (Championship, Milk Cup, F.A. Cup and Europe), and Liverpool took part in a total of 188 competitive fixtures during their League hat-trick seasons. They comprised 126 League, 31 Milk Cup, 21 European, 8 F.A. Cup and 2 Charity Shield matches.

Compared with this, Huddersfield played 132 games in 1924-25-26 (126 League, 6 F.A. Cup) and Arsenal 137 in 1933-34-35 (126 League, 9 F.A. Cup and 2 Charity Shields).

So Liverpool played more than 50 games more than either Huddersfield or Arsenal did in their Championship treble years. Put another way, they squeezed four seasons' football into three compared with the old days.

Besides completing the Championship hat-trick, Liverpool also won the Milk Cup in 1982-83-84, and the European Cup in 1984. They thus became the first English club to win three major trophies in one season.

This is how the three League Championship hat-tricks compare:-

FOOTBALL LEAGUE ANNUAL MEETING

Decisions taken at the Football League AGM in London on June 7:

- Re-elected: Northampton Town (52 votes), Torquay United (50), Stockport County (50) and Halifax Town (48) were all voted back into the Fourth Division. Bath City (Gola League) received only 8 votes.
- Substitutes: Proposal to allow two substitutes per team per match (as in Scotland) was rejected on grounds of extra cost involved in appearance money, bonus etc.
- Referees' fees: Match fee for referees increased to £50 (previously £43); linesmen to receive £25 (£21.50).
- Captains identified: Captains to wear distinguishing armbands and to present team sheets to referee, in his dressing-room, at least 30 minutes before kick-off.
- Colours: Continental style jerseys approved for goalkeepers (any colour, design, providing distinguishable from colours worn by all other players). Linesmen's flags no longer restricted to red and yellow.
- TV News coverage: Access for match coverage by TV news to be restricted and subject to term of general TV contract.

INTERNATIONAL BOARD DECISION

FIFA's International Board, meeting in Belfast on June 15, made further modification in the rule affecting goalkeepers, in an attempt to quicken up play. The 'keeper, having released the ball in his penalty-area (after taking up to four steps) cannot pick it up again until another player, of either side, has touched it (his own player to do so must be outside the area).

SENT-OFF PLAYERS TO PAY UP

The Football League and Professional Footballers' Association have agreed a new code of discipline, starting in season 1985-86, by which a player sent off loses half a week's wages, forfeits a full week's pay for a second dismissal and 1½ weeks' money if ordered off for a third time.

Although the scale of fines is not automatically binding, clubs will be expected to follow the guide-lines laid down in this attempt to improve the state of the game.

IT'S A FACT

ENGLAND'S COMPLETE RECORD

England played their 600th. full International when they met Scotland at Hampden Park last season (May 25). That was 113 years after their first match, also against Scotland in Glasgow (0-0), but played on the West of Scotland cricket ground, Partick (November 30, 1872).

England's complete International record, as at the start of season 1985-86:–

P	W	D	L	F	A
604	352	129	123	1493	680

EUROPE'S TOP THREE

Real Madrid, with seven trophies (6 European Cup successes, 1 in the UEFA Cup) are the Masters of Europe. Second in the list with six European victories are Liverpool (4 in the Champions' Cup, 2 in the UEFA Cup), and Barcelona are third with five (3 in the UEFA Cup, 2 in the Cup-Winners' Cup).

Victory for Juventus in the 1985 European Cup Final made them the first club to win all three European competitions (Champions' Cup, Cup-Winners' Cup and UEFA Cup).

BRITISH SUCCESSES IN EUROPE

Everton's first European triumph, in the 1985 Cup-Winners' Cup, took the total of British successes in Europe to 25:–

European Cup (9)	Cup-Winners' Cup (7)	Fairs/UEFA Cup (9)
1967 Celtic	1963 Tottenham	1968 Leeds Utd.
1968 Man. United	1965 West Ham Utd.	1969 Newcastle Utd.
1977 Liverpool	1970 Man. City	1970 Arsenal
1978 Liverpool	1971 Chelsea	1971 Leeds Utd.
1979 Nott'm Forest	1972 Rangers	1972 Tottenham
1980 Nott'm. Forest	1983 Aberdeen	1973 Liverpool
1981 Liverpool	1985 Everton	1976 Liverpool
1982 Aston Villa		1981 Ipswich Town
1984 Liverpool		1984 Tottenham

RUSH'S UNIQUE RECORD

In the five seasons in which Ian Rush has played first-team football for Liverpool, they have never lost any competitive match in which he has scored for them.

At the start of season 1985-86, he had scored in 88 games for Liverpool, and they have resulted in 72 wins and 16 draws.

ALL-INTERNATIONAL CUP WINNERS

All twelve players who took part in Manchester United's 1985 F.A. Cup Final victory against Everton are full Internationals. They comprised four from England (Bailey, Gidman, Robson and substitute Duxbury), three from the Republic of Ireland (McGrath, Moran and Stapleton), two from Scotland (Albiston and Strachan) and one each from Northern Ireland (Whiteside), Wales (Hughes) and Denmark (Olsen).

EVERTON'S RARE FEAT

On their way to the 1985 League Championship, Everton beat every club in the First Division. It was the first time for 15 seasons that one club beat all other 21 teams in a First Division season – since Everton themselves did it in 1969-70.

Liverpool were close to the feat in season 1978-79, when they recorded victories against 20 First Division opponents. The one they did not beat: Everton.

CUP FINAL RARITY

Everton v. Man. United in 1985 provided only the second instance of the F.A. Cup Final being played between the winners of the two previous seasons. The other occasion was the 1952 Final between Arsenal (1950 winners) and Newcastle (1951 winners).

PENALTY HAT-TRICK

Andy Blair's three goals from the spot for Sheffield Wednesday, when they beat Luton 4-2 at home in last season's Milk Cup 4th. Round, was the first penalty hat-trick in Wednesday's history.

It was also the first such hat-trick for any Football League club for 6½ years – since Alan Slough for Peterborough when they lost a Third Division match 4-3 at Chester in April 1978.

UNFINISHED MATCHES

The score in the Bradford City v Lincoln City Third Division fixture, abandoned (0-0) through fire after 40 minutes on May 11 last, was subsequently confirmed as a result – only the third instance in the Football League's 97-year history of the score in an unfinished League match being allowed to stand.

The other occasions were: Middlesbrough 4, Oldham 1 (Div. 1, April 3, 1915), abandoned after 55 minutes when Oldham defender W. Cook refused to leave the field after being sent off by the referee; Barrow 7, Gillingham 0 (Div. 4, October 9, 1967), abandoned after 75 minutes because of bad light, the match having started late because of Gillingham's delayed arrival.

When the First Division fixture between Sheffield Wednesday and Aston Villa was abandoned through bad light after 79½ minutes on November 26, 1898 (with Wednesday leading 3-1), the Football League ordered the match to be completed at a subsequent date. The remaining 10½ minutes were played four months later, on March 13, 1899, and Wednesday added another goal to make the result 4-1.

ROBSON'S CHOICE

In his three seasons and 35 matches as England manager, Bobby Robson has used 58 players, of whom 36 have been new caps (ten of them last season).

RECORD NON-LEAGUE FEE

Coventry City, having kept their First Division place by winning last season's final three matches, then paid a record fee for a non-League player (£50,000) when they signed 22-year-old striker Paul Culpin from Nuneaton Borough (Gola League). He scored 107 goals for Nuneaton in the last two seasons.

DALGLISH TAKES OVER

On the eve of the 1985 European Cup Final, 64-year-old Joe Fagan said he was relinquishing the management of Liverpool after two seasons. True to Anfield tradition, his successor was chosen "from within", but with a difference – 34-year-old Kenny Dalglish was initially appointed manager-player, with former manager Bob Paisley to assist him for the first two seasons.

ENGLAND STRIP CHANGE

In a £1m. five-year agreement with Umbro, England reverted to predominantly white shirts in season 1983-84. The new strip was worn for the first time in a senior International against France in Paris in February 1984. The change colour remains red. The previous red-white-blue design had been in existence since 1974. England wore Umbro shirts when they won the World Cup in 1966.

HAMPDEN WARM-UP

Hampden Park, home of Scottish football, is to have under-pitch heating as part of its £5m. redevelopment programme which began in November 1981 and is due for completion in 1986.

WEMBLEY SENDINGS-OFF

Manchester United's Kevin Moran, first player to be sent off in the F.A. Cup Final (v Everton, 1985) was the second dismissal in a Wembley Final. The first was Leeds captain Syd Hynes in the 1971 Rugby League Final.

Moran became the sixth player ordered off in first-class soccer matches at Wembley. The others:-

Aug. 1948	Boris Stankovic (Yugoslavia) v Sweden, Olympic Games.
July 1966	Antonio Rattin (Argentine captain) v England, World Cup.
Aug. 1974	Billy Bremner (Leeds) and Kevin Keegan (Liverpool) in F.A. Charity Shield.
Mar. 1977	Gilbert Dresch (Luxembourg) v England, World Cup.

STRANGEST GOAL OF SEASON

Wimbledon scored without touching the ball in their Second Division match at home to Portsmouth (Oct. 20, 1984). It came directly after Alan Cork had scored the opening goal of the match a minute before half-time.

From the restart, Portsmouth passed the ball backwards and finally defender Noel Blake rolled it back towards goalkeeper Alan Knight – but Knight (who had been injured trying to prevent Cork's goal) did not see it coming.

He was busy tending a knock on the knee, and the ball trickled into the net (Blake own goal) to put Wimbledon two ahead. They went on to win 3-2, a result that cost Portsmouth the season's last unbeaten League record.

SCOTTISH PREMIER DIVISION: FIRST TEN YEARS (1975-85)

Champions: Celtic 4 times, Aberdeen 3, Rangers 2, Dundee United 1.
Most points in season: 59 – Aberdeen (1984-85).
Most wins in season: 27 – Aberdeen (1984-85).
Fewest points in season: 11 – St. Johnstone (1975-76).
Most defeats in season: 29 – Morton (1984-85).
Most goals in season: 90 - Celtic and Dundee United (1982-83).
Most goals conceded in season: 100 – Morton (1984-85).
Most times relegated: 3 – Heart of Midlothian and Kilmarnock.

THEY DID THE DOUBLE

Only four clubs in the game's history have won the League Championship and F.A. Cup in the same season. Defeat for Champions Everton at Wembley last May meant that they joined others like Manchester United, Leeds and Liverpool, who all went close to the feat in modern times – and missed.

Preston North End initiated the double in the League's first season (1888-89), winning the 12-club Championship without losing a match and the F.A. Cup without conceding a goal.

Aston Villa were next to achieve it in 1897, when the First Division comprised 16 clubs. With the Championship increased to 22 clubs in 1919, it was 1961 before the feat was again performed, by Tottenham, and it has not been repeated since Arsenal became the fourth double-winning team in 1971.

This is how the programmes of the four clubs compared:

Year	Club	League Games	FA Cup Rounds
1889	Preston N.E.	22	5
1897	Aston Villa	30	5
1961	Tottenham	42	6
1971	Arsenal	42	6

JENNINGS' DOUBLE DISTINCTION

Pat Jennings, Northern Ireland and Arsenal goalkeeper, who made history as the first (and still only) British player to complete 1,000 appearances in first-class football, had taken his grand total to 1,087 matches by the end of season 1984-85. His 110 Internationals are another all-time British record.

The career of 40-year-old Jennings spans 23 seasons, beginning with Watford (debut May 1963), continuing with Tottenham (1964-77) and then with Arsenal (1977-85).

He made his 1,000th. first-class appearance when Arsenal visited West Bromwich Albion in the First Division on February 25, 1983, and his record has been compiled in ten categories as follows:–

Football League	757
Full Internationals	110
F.A. Cup	84
League Cup/Milk Cup	72
European club matches	55
F.A. Charity Shield	2
Other Internationals	2
Under-23 International	1
Texaco Cup	2
Anglo-Italian Cup	2
Total:	1,087

MOVE TO BEAT BACKLOGS

Starting this season (1985-86), League fixtures postponed because of bad weather or illness will have to be played on the next convenient date and not re-arranged for a month or more later. This decision followed the situation last May that helped Coventry City to stay in the First Division at the expense of Norwich City.

Because of a flu virus at the beginning of April, Coventry's matches at home to Luton and away to Stoke were postponed. They still had three fixtures left after Norwich had completed their programme, needed to win them all to stay up – and did. They beat Stoke and Luton 1-0 and finished on Sunday, May 26 with a 4-1 victory at home to injury-weakened Champions Everton.

F.A. CUP POSTPONEMENTS – NEW RULE

Decision at the F.A. Summer Meeting (Bournemouth, June 29-30, 1985): In future, any F.A. Cup tie postponed on a Saturday must be re-arranged (weather permitting) for the following Monday, with any subsequent replay to be staged the same week.

THREE SURVIVORS

Of the 12 clubs who founded the Football League in 1888, only three are currently in the First Division: Aston Villa, Everton and West Bromwich Albion.

Of the other nine, Blackburn and Stoke are in Division 2; Bolton, Derby, Notts County and Wolves are in Division 3; Burnley and Preston are in Division 4; and Accrington Stanley went out of the League in 1962.

OLDEST CUP-WINNER

Dick Pym, Bolton Wanderers' goalkeeper in the first Wembley Cup Final in 1923, celebrated his 92nd. birthday on February 2 last at his home at Topsham, Devon.

He played in three F.A. Cup Finals and kept a clean sheet in each of them: 2-0 v West Ham, 1923; 1-0 v Man. City, 1926; 2-0 v Portsmouth, 1929.

SIR STANLEY REACHES 90

Sir Stanley Rous, former F.A. Secretary and FIFA President, celebrated his 90th. birthday on April 25 last. The F.A. honoured him with a celebrity banquet in London and announced a new trophy in his honour – the "Rous Cup" for presentation to the winners of the annual England-Scotland match.

F.A. OPEN SOCCER SCHOOL

The Duke of Kent, President of the Football Association, opened the F.A.'s first national Soccer School at Lilleshall on September 4, 1984. It is sponsored by General Motors, and the first intake comprised 25 boys aged 14. Aim is to provide the backbone of England's World Cup challenge in the 1990s.

ENGLAND-SCOTLAND SWITCH

The England-Scotland fixture, scheduled for Wembley last May 25, was switched to Glasgow by the F.A., under pressure from the Prime Minister, police and transport authorities. It was an unprecedented change of venue.

Reason was fear of disorder from an expected Bank Holiday week-end invasion of London by 50,000 Scots and, with no alternative date available in midweek, the match was moved to Hampden Park.

ROYAL SCOTS

Liverpool's Kenny Dalglish was awarded the MBE in the 1985 New Year Honours, and Aberdeen manager Alex Ferguson received the OBE.

SPURS END RECORD JINX

Tottenham ended football's longest-running jinx when Garth Crooks scored the goal that gave them a 1-0 League win away to Liverpool last March. It was 72 years to the day since they had last won in any competition at Anfield (March 16, 1912).

MAN. UNITED'S RECORD PROFIT

Manchester United reported (Nov. 1, 1984) a record British profit of £1.7m on season 1983-84.

FRENCH CONNECTION

When Didier Six, 30-year-old International winger, joined Aston Villa on loan last October from French club Mulhouse, he became the first player from that country to play in the Football League.

HAMPDEN'S ANCIENT WOODWORK

The goalposts in use at Hampden Park, home of Scottish football, have been there for 76 years. The woodwork is angled (i.e. not elliptical, as at Wembley and many club grounds) and the crossbars have a steel bar running through them.

The posts are bedded in concrete and were put in after a riot at the 1909 Scottish Cup Final between Celtic and Rangers destroyed the Hampden goals.

EVERTON HAT-TRICK

Everton's Peter Reid was voted P.F.A. Player of the Year for 1985, goalkeeper Neville Southall won the Footballer of the Year award and Howard Kendall was named Manager of the Year.

BOBBY CHARLTON HONOURED

Bobby Charlton, 47, former Manchester United and England star, who joined the Old Trafford board last season, received an honorary Master of Arts degree from Manchester University (July 11, 1985).

CHANGE OF VENUE

Bradford City, whose Valley Parade ground is unfit for use this season following the fire that destroyed the main stand last May, will play their home fixtures in 1985-86 at Bradford Northern's Rugby League stadium at Odsal.

LUTON GO 'ARTIFICIAL'

Luton Town have installed an artificial pitch at Kenilworth Road this summer. They are the second Football League club to have such a surface; Q.P.R. were the first in 1981.

VENABLES' SPANISH TITLE

Terry Venables, former Q.P.R. manager, was voted "Manager of the Year" (1984-85) in Spain after steering Barcelona to their first Championship title for 11 years in his first season in charge.

GOOD LUCK, FIRST-TIMERS

Football League clubs who have appointed men new to management for the start of season 1985-86 include: Liverpool – Kenny Dalglish (manager-player); Chelsea – John Hollins; Stoke City – Mick Mills (player-manager); Burnley – Martin Buchan; Lincoln City – John Pickering; Tranmere Rovers – Frank Worthington (player-manager).

QUICK RETURN

Lou Macari, former Scottish International forward, was re-instated as manager of Fourth Division Swindon Town last April, only five days after being sacked.

RICHER MILK IN 1985-86

Prize money for the fourth and final Milk Cup competition in 1985-86 has been increased by £70,000 to £560,000. The winners will receive £72,000 (previously £64,000) and the runners-up will collect £55,000 (£48,000).

TV DEAL DEADLOCK

Less than three weeks before the start of season 1985-86, Football League clubs and Television remained in deadlock over a new deal. The clubs refused TV's February offer of £3.8m. a year, which involved more live matches, and with the situation still at stalemate by late July, BBC and ITV left week-end soccer off their autumn programme schedules. In a separate agreement with the F.A., the BBC were to show recorded highlights of the Charity Shield match between Everton and Manchester United on August 10.

BOB'S LAST SEASON

BOB STOKOE, at 54 football's longest-serving manager (25 years), is to retire at the end of season 1985-86. He is the only manager to have had two spells in charge of three different clubs (Rochdale, Blackpool and Carlisle), he also managed Charlton, Sunderland and Bury, and has currently been at Carlisle since September, 1980.
